A Prayer for Priests

BE LIKE THE SAMARITAN

The parable in today's Gospel is one of the best known of all the teachings of Jesus. The term "Good Samaritan" has been used to name various charitable organizations and is even the official name of one state's emergency roadside assistance program that helps stranded motorists. With the prevalence of the terminology used to describe various activities in our day, we might be led to forget the message of this Gospel passage. This man, this Samaritan, was the only one who offered the beaten man help. Samaritans, remember, were considered the lowest of the low in the time of Christ. A good Jewish person would not even have gone near a Samaritan for fear of being rendered impure. The Samaritan was motivated solely by the sense that the poor man needed help. He didn't care about religious or social status. And Jesus' message is that we are to do the same.

BLESSED KATERI TEKAKWITHA

(1656-1680) July 14

Though the New York State Thruway runs close by the North American Martyrs' Shrine, traffic's roar never pierces the peace enveloping Auriesville--Osseron to Native Americans--in the lovely Mohawk Valley, where Kateri Tekakwitha was born barely ten years after the martyrdom of Isaac Jogues and his Jesuit and lay companions. Daughter of a Christian Algonquin mother and non-Christian Mohawk chief, Kateri's parents died in a smallpox epidemic widely blamed on the missionaries. Moreover, many Native Americans had experienced exploitation at the hands of "Christian" traders and trappers, further discrediting the faith Kateri embraced in baptism, then pledged to live even more intensely in vowed virginity. Misunderstanding led to harassment, prompting her move to a Christian village farther north along the Saint Lawrence River. Despite this, Kateri's faith remained undaunted, her selfless charity undiminished. Both before and after her death at twenty-four, this young "Lily of the Mohawks" drew countless converts to Christ by the fragrance of her goodness. Through us, does "the aroma of Christ" (2 Corinthians 2:15), attract others to the beauty of his gospel? --Peter Scagnelli

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends in Christ,

HEADLINE... WE DID IT!

I announce to you with great joy that after we closed the books on fiscal year 2009-2010: BOTH PARISHES ARE IN THE BLACK! This is the second year in a row! What a way to celebrate Independence Day. Let the fireworks begin. Once again, let me tell you how proud and grateful I am to have such dedicated and hard-working parishioners. Every now and then I hear from a few people who think that money is my primary concern. I hope you all know by now that this is not true. The pastoral and spiritual ministries of our parishes are primary. Administration is not my strength; it is a duty. When we get behind and are not able to support the principle work of our parishes – Catholic education, formation, sacred worship, and Christian charity – it gets me down. I not only thank you, but our parish finance councils and those who help care for the temporal needs of our parishes and schools. You are a great blessing not only to me, but to all our parishioners as well.

Fr. Bill

This letter is reprinted from the July 4th bulletin. Please pray for Fr. Bill's safe travels to Belgium where he is leading a retreat for Mother Teresa's sisters.

Visiting Missionary

Fr. Justine Elias V.C. , a Vincentian Missionary Priest from India, is here in our parish this weekend to preach at all the Masses on behalf of the Vincentian Missions. These Missionaries are in need of our help to support educational and charitable activities in India and East Africa. We ask that you be generous in your mission offering. Special marked envelopes will be available and will be collected at the offertory time. We ask that you pray for Fr. Justine and the missionaries of the Vincentian Congregation.

We honor those whose sacrifices have enabled this country to come into existence, to grow, and to protect itself and others with whom we share common beliefs. We honor those who have served in our military by being away from their families and friends for extended periods, by enduring hardships unimaginable to many of us. We honor those who have given their lives on our behalf, or on behalf of those who don't share the blessings we as Americans often take for granted. We honor them whether we agree or disagree with the circumstances and decisions that placed them in harms way. We honor them for their service and commitment to a country that strives for justice and right, even when we fall short. (Taken in part from a news letter C.S.T.)

In the shrine area a book is available for you to place the names of loved ones you would liked remembered in prayer. This can be the names of someone serving now or in the past. Please place a cross in front of those names who are deceased.
