Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time, June 20, 2010

FOLLOW IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF CHRIST

The great fifty-day celebration of Easter has concluded, as have the feasts honoring the Holy Trinity and the Body and Blood of Christ. Last week we began a long stretch of Ordinary Time that will bring us to late November. Saint Paul tells us today that those who are baptized "have clothed yourselves with Christ" (Galatians 3:27). This scripture is echoed in the Church's baptism ritual when we sing, "You have put on Christ, in him you have been baptized." This message is inspiring and sobering at the same time, for in today's Gospel, we get to the heart of what it means to be clothed in Christ. The Lord tells us, "If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me" (Luke 9:23). For the next twenty-two weeks we are called to take up the cross and, with Saint Luke as our guide, follow in the footsteps of Christ. (c) Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

SAINT JOHN FISHER (1469-1535) AND SAINT THOMAS MORE (1477-1535)

June 22

From Robert Bolt's classic A Man For All Seasons to Showtime's edgy The Tudors, Thomas More endears himself still: lawyer-statesman of impeccable integrity, remarried widower and affectionate father delighting in a lively household--four children, a pet monkey, even a paid jester! And challenges still: humanist-reformer, yet champion of Catholic faith and papal primacy. John Paul II named him "Patron of Statesmen and Politicians," citing More's generous work, both as a lawyer and in government service, on behalf of the poorest and most marginalized people of his time, as well as his promotion of education for all sectors of society. More's decision for principle over politics, conscience over convenience prompted his final words: "I die the King's good servant, but God's first." Alone among England's bishops, John Fisher dared challenge Henry VIII's divorce and repudiation of the papacy. When the Pope named the imprisoned Fisher a cardinal, Henry thundered: "Don't bother sending Fisher's red hat here; I'll send Fisher's head to Rome!" Whose "good servants" are we first? Isn't a right conscience worth the pain of standing alone? -- Peter Scagnelli, (c) Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

FATHERHOOD

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends in Christ,

Happy Father's Day! Our country still maintains a special celebration for two of the most important persons to ever have been created – mothers and fathers! Each have their own respective day of honor, but together they form the "communion of persons" ordained by God to participate in the awesome mystery of the creation of human life in the bond of human and divine love – within the sacrament of Holy Matrimony. This is the most visible representation of God's own life in the Blessed Trinity. As seen in the life of the Holy Family, particularly in the life of St. Joseph, fatherhood bears a special responsibility for the protection of marriage and family life. We see in St. Joseph a heroic love when his family is put in harms way. He leads them to safety and creates a protective home for his wife and child. He loves his wife with a pure heart and teaches his son the necessary lessons of life that allow him to grow in age, wisdom, and grace. He teaches Jesus what it truly means to be a man. Fathers, God has given you a special vocation to teach young men of the future what it means to be a man of honor, self-sacrifice, faith and love. God bless you!

Fraternally in Christ, Fr. Bill

FR. BILL NEEDS HELP FROM THE MEN OF ST. CHARLES BORROME0

Renovation of the second floor of the rectory will take place during the month of July. Men and older boys are needed on July 5th to prepare the rooms for renovation. Two bathrooms need to be gutted and carpeting needs to be removed in two bedrooms and hallways. The building and grounds committee has decided to work on Monday, July 5th to accomplish this. The men will work from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm to get the bulk of this work done. If you can sacrifice some time on July 5th to help, Fr. Bill would be most appreciative. Give the parish office a call to let us know who will be coming to help and when, this would be very helpful. Lunch will be provided. Those who have tools to take out tile and ceramic can bring them along. Mostly we need muscles! Thank you!

Oh, blood and water which gushed forth from the heart of Jesus as a fount of mercy for us,
I TRUST IN YOU!"
(St. Faustina's Diary on Divine Mercy)
We need help covering these hours for adoration . Please call Andy at 568-5243.

The Boy Friend Music and lyrics by Sandy Wilson
Presented with special permission by MTI, Inc.
Friday, Saturday, July 23 and 24 at 7 p.m. Sunday, July 25 at 2 p.m. Julie Andrews starred in the 1954 Broadway debut of this musical romance set in the 1920s at Madame Dubonnet's Fashionable Finishing School on the French Riviera. The Boy Friend brings to life the Charleston dance craze, banjo music, the language, costuming, and characters of that era. Complications arise when Polly Brown, an unhappy English heiress and the only young lady without a boyfriend, falls for the delivery boy. Romance blooms and Polly professes her love at the Grand Ball. A rollicking, funny spoof, the songs will lift your spirits and linger in your mind – pure entertainment, nothing more, nothing less. Directed by Nancy Scobie, music direction by Jerry Way.

Admission: adults $10, seniors $9, youth $5, family of 4 $20. Tickets are available at St. Charles rectory. Please stop and get your tickets during office hours.
