The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ June 6, 2010

CHRIST FORETOLD

In Genesis, Melchizedek is described as a king who is also a priest. As this story is usually interpreted, Melchizedek's action of bringing out bread and wine and blessing it with praise to the Creator is a prophetic action. Seen as a prefigurement of the action of Jesus, he foretells to Abram the One who is to come, the Messiah. The psalm echoes this theme in the time of David the King, who praises and thanks God and proclaims the preexistence of the Christ, who is given princely power from "the day of your birth, in holy splendor" (Psalm 110:3). God has promised this to David and his descendants forever, and God will never go back on this promise. (c) Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

June 11

Think of countless T-shirts and bumper stickers: "I (BIG RED HEART) a city/pet/candidate/whatever." The heart is truly the universal symbol of love. Catholic tradition pictures Jesus' heart as living token of redemptive love. The Gospels describe Jesus' heart as "meek and humble" (Matthew 11:29), "full of compassion" (Matthew 9:36), a "fountain of living water" (John 7:37-39), of "blood [Eucharist] and water [Baptism]" (John 19:34), sacraments of the church's birth, new Eve from new Adam's side. The Sacred Heart devotion blossomed in the seventeenth century, countering an overemphasis on spiritual unworthiness and an increasing secular contempt for religion with loving affection for Jesus and encouragement of frequent Communion. The devotion's "apostle" was the humble nun Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque (1647-90), who envisioned Jesus, pointing to his burning, wounded heart and lamenting the world's indifference: "Behold the Heart that has loved people so and is loved so little in return!" This cherished Catholic devotion reminds us that, no matter how sophisticated the theology in our heads, discipleship is also, perhaps more so, a matter of the heart. --Peter Scagnelli (c) Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

FAITH IS

Faith is not merely praying Upon our knees at night; Faith is not merely straying Through darkness into light . . . Faith is the brave endeavor, The splendid enterprise, The strength to serve, whatever Conditions may arise. --Anonymous

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Now that the summer schedule begins, and schools have closed, I want to make you aware of a schedule change for Monday Mass at St. Charles Borromeo. We have moved the morning Mass to the early evening – 5:30 pm. This change will remain even when school begins in the fall. Next school year the children will be coming to the 9:00 am Mass on Tuesday mornings. This will give Deacon Kinnick and me a little break from the weekend schedule. I also ask you to watch the weekday schedule of Masses very closely, especially if you regularly attend. The Liturgy of the Word with Holy Communion may be substituted when priests are not available to celebrate the Mass. Such will be the case this week when I will be in La Crosse for our annual Priest Unity Days. The same will be true when I am away giving some retreats. Know that even when a Liturgy of the Word with Holy Communion replaces the parish Mass, I am likely celebrating Mass that day somewhere. When this happens I unite my intentions and my Mass with those who are attending the Communion Service.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Bill
