A Prayer for Priests

Lord our God, You guide your people
by the ministry of priests.

By Your grace, keep them faithful in obedient service to You and Your Church.

Keep them united to Yourself by a love
that will never end.

By their life and ministry,
may they bring You glory. Amen

LABORERS FOR THE HARVEST

Today's Gospel tells the story of the sending out of the seventy-two, some of the first disciples in the burgeoning church. They must have been full of idealism and excitement as they went from town to town healing the sick and expelling demons. Today, the Fourth of July, we remember those who founded our country and can also imagine their excitement and idealism as they worked in this newly established country. Our Church, now over two thousand years old, is still in need of men filled with idealism and excitement who are willing to answer the call to the ordained priesthood. Today is a day to pray for vocations to the priesthood; as the Lord tells his disciples, "[A]sk the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest" (Luke 10:2). (c) Copyright, J. S. SAINT MARIA GORETTI (1890-1902)

July 6

Does anything match a mother's pride in her children? First Communions, confirmations, graduations, weddings: how these delight a mother's heart! Imagine, then, Assunta Goretti, the only mother ever to attend her child's canonization! In poverty-stricken rural Italy, widowed Assunta tended fields for the Serenelli family, whose eighteen-year old son Alessandro propositioned her barely twelve-year old Maria; then, when she resisted, crying, "It is a sin! God forbids it!" he stabbed her fourteen times. As she lay dying, Maria assured the attending priest, "Yes, I forgive Alessandro! I want him to be in Paradise with me someday." Imprisoned, unrepentant, Alessandro changed after dreaming that a radiant Maria had offered him fourteen lilies. "I've kept my promise," she smiled. "You'll be here with me someday." Upon release, he rushed to beg Assunta's forgiveness. "Jesus has forgiven you," she replied, "my Maria too. How can I refuse?" Next morning, mother and murderer walked arm in arm to church and knelt side by side for Communion. --Peter Scagnelli, (c)

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends in Christ,

HEADLINE... WE DID IT!

I announce to you with great joy that after we closed the books on fiscal year 2009-2010: BOTH PARISHES ARE IN THE BLACK! This is the second year in a row! What a way to celebrate Independence Day? Let the fireworks begin. Once again, let me tell you how proud and grateful I am to have such dedicated and hard-working parishioners. Every now and then I hear from a few people who think that money is my primary concern. I hope you all know by now that this is not true. The pastoral and spiritual ministries of our parishes are primary. Administration is not my strength; it is a duty. When we get behind and are not able to support the principle work of our parishes – Catholic education, formation, sacred worship, and Christian charity – it gets me down. I not only thank you, but our parish finance councils and those who help care for the temporal needs of our parishes and schools. You are a great blessing not only to me, but to all our parishioners as well. Have a blessed, safe, and happy 4th!

Fr. Bill

We are in need of painters to help with the project at the rectory. Please call the parish office 723-4088, if you would be interested in painting .

Any help would be appreciated.

Missionaries

Visiting Missionary

Fr. Justine Elias V.C. , a Vincentian Missionary Priest from India, will be here in our parish the weekend of July 10 and 11 to preach at all the Masses on behalf of the Vincentian Missions. These Missionaries are in need of our help to support educational and charitable activities in India and East Africa. We ask that you be generous in your mission offering. Special marked envelopes will be available and will be collected at the offertory time.

We ask that you pray for Fr. Justine and the missionaries of the Vincentian Congregation.

Help Wanted & Needed

Building a relationship with God is a fundamentally important part of the Christian life. In Eucharistic Adoration, we have the opportunity to build that relationship in a quiet, one on one environment. God is always calling us closer. Could He be calling you to a weekly hour of adoration? There are several openings in His weekly schedule at the Goldsmith Chapel, which are listed below.

Monday 7 AM Tuesday 1 A.M.

Thursday 2 AM

Friday Midnight (Late Thursday)

Friday 1 AM

Friday 6 PM MANY other hours need a second adorer. Please call Andy at 568-5243 to find a time that works for you. The Goldsmith Chapel is located next to Notre Dame, in Chippewa Falls.
